Sir:

REQUEST FOR REVERSAL OF REVOCATION OF POWER OF ATTORNEY

In response to the Notice Regarding Change of Power of Attorney issued November 6, 2006 in the above-referenced patent, the undersigned respectfully requests that the Power of Attorney be returned to Customer No. 009629.

Applicants respectfully assert that NOKIA CORPORATION has no interest whatsoever in the above-referenced patent. Thus, NOKIA CORPORATION has not rights associated with the above-referenced patent, and may not revoke the Power of Attorney originally-filed in the above-referenced patented application. In addition, Applicants respectfully assert that the Certificate Under 37 C.F.R. § 3.73(b) filed on September 22, 2006 by a Mr. Douglas H. Goldhush (Reg. No.33,125) of Squire, Sanders and Dempsey L.L.P. is completely unrelated to the above-referenced patent. Specifically, although the Application Number cited in the Certificate relates to Applicants' above-referenced patented application, none of the Title, the Applicants, the Filing Date, and the Assignee correspond to Applicants' above-referenced patented application. Furthermore, none of the attachments filed with the Certificate correspond to Applicants' above-referenced patented application.

Accordingly, Applicants respectfully assert that the Notice Regarding Change of Power of Attorney issued in Applicant's above-referenced patent is clearly erroneous. Thus, Applicants respectfully request that revocation of power of attorney be reversed, and that another Notice be issued to correct the mistake(s) made by Mr. Douglas H. Goldhush in the above-referenced patented application.

If there are any specific fees due in connection with the filing of this Request, please charge the fees to our Deposit Account No. 50-0310.

Respectfully submitted,
